

PUBLIC NOTICE

#2020-21 Bureau of Police Policy Review and Consultation Project

CITY OF LANCASTER, PA

The City of Lancaster, PA will receive proposals online for City of Lancaster Bureau of Police Policy Review and Consultation Project until December 7th, 2020 at 11:00AM at which time they shall be opened electronically and publicly posted on PennBid's website. This RFP is intended to attract for hire a consulting firm with appropriate legal and police policy expertise to assist the Bureau of Police in reviewing, analyzing and, where appropriate modifying and/or developing, its policies to assure that they are sound and effective, are consistent with the City's core values, are based on applicable constitutional standards, meet the standards required for Pennsylvania accreditation, and incorporate both best policing practices and 21st century policing pillars. All documents and solicitation details are available online at no cost on PennBid- www.PennBid.net.

The City of Lancaster, PA reserves the right to reject any and all Proposals and to accept the Proposal which is in the best interest of the City. The lowest responsible proposer need not be the proposer offering the lowest dollar cost for the services proposed. The City may also consider the quality of the services supplied, the background and history of the proposer, the proposer's previous work with police departments and city's sharing similar core values, the proposer's experience with 21st century policing pillars and principals, the proposer's familiarity and experience with Pennsylvania police accreditation, responsiveness, past performance and any other reasonable factors specified in the project package.